

Regulation 126(1) Notice of Alteration to the CEPU Rules
Section A National Rule 21.4 – November 2015

21 - NEW RULES & ALTERATIONS TO RULES

- 21.1 Except as provided in this rule, the National Council shall have the exclusive power to make, amend or rescind the rules of the Union.
- 21.2 Divisional rules (set out in sections B, C and D) shall not be made, amended or rescinded by the National Council without the prior approval of the appropriate Divisional Council.
- 21.3 Rule 28.2 "Dissolution of a Division" may not be amended or rescinded without an affirmative ballot of members of the appropriate Division.
- 21.4 Any amendment or rescission of rules 6.1.4 relating to membership of the divisions ~~the "Establishment of Divisions"~~, 6.2 "Autonomy of Divisions", 7.17 "Carrying of National Council Resolutions" and this rule (rule 21) shall be of no effect unless ~~ratified by each of the Divisional Councils~~:
- 21.4.1 more than 60% of the votes cast, are cast in favour of the resolution; and more than 50% of the votes cast by National Councillors from each Division are also cast in favour of the resolution; or
- 21.4.2 more than 90% of the votes cast, are cast in favour of the resolution.